

ILLNESS AND THE SOUL

Introduction

Chapter 1: Of Matter and Spirit

Prayer and Spiritual Healing
Spontaneous Regressions and the Placebo Effect
Experimental Settings
Directed versus Nondirected Prayer
What Kind of Energy Is Involved?

Chapter 2: Spiritual Healers

I: The Life and Work of Agnes Sanford

Childhood and Youth
Rediscovering Prayer and Healing
Spiritual Experiences

II: Bruno Gröning

Childhood
Professional and Married Life
Healings
Mounting Opposition
Death and Continuing Mission
How Did the Healings Occur?
Gröning After His Death: The Bruno Gröning Circle of Friends

Chapter 3: Soul Moods, Soul Shocks, and Illness

I: Soul Moods and Illness: Bach Flower Remedies

From Vaccines and Nosodes to Flower Remedies
The First Series of Nineteen and the Sun Method
Illness and Soul Mood
The Second Series of Nineteen and the Boiling Method
Twelve Tracks
The Healing Process

II: Soul Shocks and Illness: The Work of Dr. Hamer

Some General Principles

Shortcomings of Conventional Medicine

Comparison Conventional Medicine—NGM

Dr Hamer's Biography

Dr. Hamer's Discoveries: The Five Biological Laws

Gathering the Insights

Chapter 4: Illness and Karma

The work of Obissier and of Hellinger

The Role of the Patient

Interceding for the Patient: Healing and Karma

Illness, Elementals, and the Double

Contagion and Regulation Pains Revisited

Conclusions: Spiritual Scientific Considerations

Illness and the Astral and Ego Organization

Illness and Contagion

Illness and Karma