

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

- Two Houses
- Paradigms as Leverages for Change
- Prevailing Paradigm/Future Paradigms
- How to Read This Book
- My Own Journey
- What Will This Book Address?

CHAPTER 1: One Example of Status Quo, Three Examples of Change

- Free Market and the Food System: The Example of Corn
- Trisector Logic in the Food System: Community Supported Agriculture
- Multi-Stakeholder Logic in the Food System
- Multiscale Logic: Food Policy Councils/Networks
- In Conclusion: A Quick Comparison

CHAPTER 2: Trisector Logic

- Balance versus Predominance
- Holistic Aspects
- Sectors and Drives
- Sectoral/Societal Learning in Trisector Partnerships
- Trisector Partnerships: Summing up
- Cultural Power
- From Either/Or to Both/And Thinking
- Rethinking Tripolar Society
- A New Paradigm: Summing Up
- Community Supported Agriculture
- Resources

CHAPTER 3: Multi-Stakeholder Logic

- A Defining Moment
- Tapping into Collective Wisdom
- Extraordinary Conversations: The Universal U
- Going Through the U
- The Quintessential Process of Decision Making
- Creating a New Way of Relating
- The Breadth of Social Technology

- Consensus Decision Making
- World Café
- Future Search
- Multi-stakeholder Logic: Summing Up
- Social Processes and Social Forms
- At the Intersection of Social Processes and Social Forms:
Sociocracy
- Resources

CHAPTER 4: Multiscale Logic: Emergence and Self-Organizing

- Emergence and Complexity
- Spontaneous Emergence: Buurtzorg; Keep It Simple
- Emergence at the Level of a Nation: Horizontalism
- Allowing Emergence: Holacracy
- Socially Generative Networks
- The Paradigm Shift Beyond Top Down or Bottom Up
- Resources

IN CONCLUSION: Giving Birth to a New Culture

- Reviewing the Whole
- Building a New Culture
- Which One Is Your Strength?
- Expanding Our Horizons by Embracing the Three Paradigms
- Conjugating the Three Paradigms for More Effective Social Change
- Listening to the Future

BIBLIOGRAPHY