

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

PART I: LEGENDS AND STORIES : GIVING SHAPE TO THE AMERICAN DREAM

Chapter 1: From America's Early Melting Pot: Revisiting the Dream of the Past

A Norse King's Visit to the Great Lakes During the Bronze Age
Celtic and Native American Cultures: Evidence of Contact
Phoenicians in the Americas
Semitic Presence in the New World

Chapter 2: From Tamanend and Washington: The Dream of Freedom

Tamanend: The Birth of a Legend
From King to Saint: from Tamanend to Washington
Recurring Themes in George Washington's Life
Benjamin Franklin and Cultural Renewal

Chapter 3: From Longhouse, Temple and Lodge: the Dream of Equality

The Iroquois League: Deganawidah and Hiawatha
Knights Templar in America: The Zeno-Sinclair Expedition
The New Knighthood of Scotland
A New Look at the American Revolution: Franklin and Washington

Chapter 4: From Squanto and Pocahontas: The Dream of Brotherhood

First Americans: Linking Destinies

Colonialism: Blotting Out Brotherhood

Chapter 5: What Can We Save from the Past?

Washington and Lincoln: Cultural Renewal and Freedom

The Call for Equality: A Contrast between Two Revolutions

The Yearning for Brotherhood and Thanksgiving

Under the Shadow of the American Dream

PART II: STORIES: RESISTING THE NIGHTMARE

Chapter 6: Martin Luther King: Moral and Cultural Leader

Martin Luther King Day

Working to Promote a New Power in Society

King's Spiritual Experiences

King's Relevance for the Future of America

Chapter 7: Women: The Long Struggle for Equality

Renewing the "Declaration" Seventy-Two Years Later

Forging The Triumvirate

Launching the Women's Movement

Reaching the Goal

Chapter 8: Earth Day: The Quest for Global Solidarity

The Birth of a Global Holiday

A Blend of Spirit and Politics

A New Thanksgiving for Mother Earth

Summing it Up: From the Time of the Colonies to the Present