

ABRAHAM LINCOLN: A SPIRITUAL SCIENTIFIC PORTRAIT

Introduction

Chapter 1: The Forerunners: Franklin, Washington and the American Revolution

- British Imperialism
- Benjamin Franklin, the First American
- George Washington: Embodying the American Ideal
- A Process of National Education
- A Closer Look at Franklin and Washington
- What was Left Unfinished
- The Michaelic Impulse in America
- Lincoln and Washington

Chapter 2: An Illinois Youth

- Family Background
- Self-Education
- Frontier Man Seeking a Vocation
- Lincoln the Politician
- Lincoln the Lawyer
- Head and Heart
- Karmic Themes

Chapter 3: Prelude to the Civil War

- North and South: the Economy
- North and South: Politics
- Supreme Court Decisions
- Lincoln's Return to Politics
- Republican Candidate and President
- The Looming Confrontation
- America at the Abyss

Chapter 4: Lincoln and the Conduct of War

- Dealing with Slavery
- Gettysburg: Renewing Commitment to the Union
- Lincoln's Leadership

- Preserving America's Future
- Fruits of Previous Initiations

Chapter 5: Educating the Nation

- The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution
- Lincoln and the Radicals
- Lincoln the Writer and Educator
- The Most Important Speeches
- Public Opinion
- Lincoln's Spirituality
- Rededicating the Nation: A Transcendentalist President?

Chapter 6: An American that Could Have Been: Lincoln and Reconstruction

- War, Reconstruction and Reelection
- Lincoln's Death

Conclusions

- Lincoln, Washington and Franklin
- Initiate of Old?
- Lincoln, the African-American and the Fate of America
- Lincoln and the Future